THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR. NO. 2.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, JANUARY 12, 1912.

PRICE, $1.00 A YEAR

CON. CON. IS ORGANIZED.

The delegates to the Ohio Constitutional convention, assembled in Columbus, Tuesday and chose officers for the fourth convention of this kind in Ohio's existence.

The selection of officers resulted in the factional fight coming up between the progressives, stand-patters and radicals as it did last fall when delegates were elected.

Rev. Herbert Bigelow of Cincinnati, a minister in what is known as the "People's Church," a former Congregationalist but not being affiliated with that denomination today. For twenty years, Bigelow has advocated the initiative and referendum and is known to favor the single tax theory. About eight years ago Bigelow spoke here before a farmers' institute advocating the I. and R. and it is known that his success in landing the presidency of this body was largely due to his efforts in behalf of this movement.

As usual, like most public questions that arise, the wet and dry issue entered and Bigelow had the support of the Anti-Saloon League. The minister is known to have decided views on certain moral questions that have been directly opposite to what the League has advocated. The fight against Bigelow was intense and it was the closest ballot before he secured the necessary vote to win. At this time, the liberal element swung from Judge Norris of Marion to the minister and he was declared elected. Other delegates voted on were Anderson of Ashtabula and Dr. Fess of this county, the latter urging his friends to support Anderson, who was a Simon pure dry candidate and the man the liberal forces feared most. C. B. Galbreath, former state librarian, was elected secretary.

Dr. Fess has for the first time made known his position on certain important questions that will come up for discussion in the convention. He favors the I. and R. but believes that the legislature should have the power to grant this. He would make 8 percent of the election tax two-fifths of the counties as a bank for petition for annexation.

Some assurances of assistance have been obtained and such an excellent start has been made that the movement will be an undoubted success. It is hoped and believed that the sum needed can be raised in a few weeks and actual construction of the building may be ready for occupancy when the college opens next September.

One of the notable features of the movement for the new dormitory is that the money is not sought from any great philanthropists, but from those of more limited means who believe in Christian education and particularly in Cedarville College, who know the work that the institution has done and is doing, and who desire to see this work continued and extended.

Announcement has been made at Jamestown that Hon. Jesse Taylor will not be a candidate for congress at the primary next May. Mr. Taylor has been the Republican nominee the past two elections but was defeated by Congressman M. H. Denver each time. Mr. Taylor is devoting all his time to the "Good Roads" movement, being secretary of the state organization.

The only candidates mentioned in this county are Hon. George Little and Dr. S. D. Fess, a movement having been started several weeks ago in the district to influence Mr. Little to become a candidate. It is almost certain that Dr. Fess would not be a candidate in case that Mr. Little concludes to enter. Another name mentioned is that of Prof. Harman of the Jamestown schools, who is also talked of as a candidate for county treasurer.

Dormitory For Cedarville College.

With the opening of the New Year the movement for a new ladies dormitory for Cedarville College began in earnest. The need for such a building has long been felt and has been increasing constantly. There are enough girl students from a distance now in attendance upon the various departments of the college to fill a good sized building, and with better arrangements for their comfortable housing many other desirable students will be attracted to the institution.

The movement was originated by the present senior class of the College, but is by no means restricted to them. All friends of the institution in the community, in the reformed Presbyterian church throughout the country and among the Alumni are interested in the work and are preparing to do their part.

The Class of 1912 have appointed two of their number, Mr. Walter P. Harriman and Mr. Howard W. McGaffick, to represent them in the work of securing funds for the building. The task undertaken by these two young men is heartily endorsed by the authorities of the college.

Considerable preliminary work has already been done, and these back of the movement are greatly encouraged by the response that has already been made and by the interest manifested by all. About five thousand dollars have already been contributed.

Within a few days Messrs. Harriman and McGaffick will start out to canvass the community, the church, and all who can reasonably be expected to assist in the work.

It is proposed to erect a twenty-five thousand dollar building, on the campus of the college. Sketches and plans of the building have already been drawn by prominent architects of Cincinnati, and reveal a building of which the institution and the community may well be proud.

So many assurances of assistance have been obtained and such an excellent start has been made that the movement will be an undoubted success. It is hoped and believed that the sum needed can be raised in a few weeks and actual construction of the building may be ready for occupancy when the college opens next September.

One of the notable features of the movement for the new dormitory is that the money is not sought from any great philanthropists, but from those of more limited means who believe in Christian education and particularly in Cedarville College, who know the work that the institution has done and is doing, and who desire to see this work continued and extended.

J. J. Turner, a colored, resident of Xenia, was arrested Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff Jackson on an indictment of grand larceny. The indictment had been kept a secret owing to Jackson being away at the time it was returned. The charge grows out of the loss of a hand bag by Mrs. S. T. Baker, containing $32 in money and a watch. L. C. McLeod, who is also under indictment implicated Turner in that he received the money.

NEWS READ YEARS AGO.

The following may be of some interest in that the items were taken from the files of the Herald as published March 1891.

"The Cedarville Alliance held an interesting meeting in the mayor's office last Saturday afternoon. The tariff was the subject of discussion and was very entertaining. O. E. Braufute, championed free trade while J. H. Wolford and Dr. Hoeman held to the popular idea of protection.

Harry Hill, the famous pedestrian passed through town, Monday, en route for New York, to enter a six day go-as-you-please race. He will travel the entire distance from Kansas City to New York to be hardened for the race. A stop of only a few minutes was made here to make memoranda of the town and the fellow started off up the Columbus pike in a trot expecting to reach Columbus in eight hours.

March 14, 1891.
Mr. A. L. Stormont met with quite an accident at the old Charlton mill owned by Harrison and Stormont, Tuesday. While working with some of the machinery three fingers on his left hand were mangled.

There has within the past ten days been a great deal of talk in regard to the action of the superintendent of our public schools towards his scholars. Charges have been made before the board on complaints and the board will take action. Prof. Shavin may be able to explain matters to the board and we await the action of the board before making any comment.

C. L. Crain, bidding his wife and daughter good-bye left Monday morning on the five o'clock car for Xenia, going from there to Dayton on business. While in Xenia he drew over $400 from the county treasurer as corporation funds, he being village treasurer. He said theories have been advanced for his disappearance but that he absconded with the village funds seems to be the prevailing one.

According to the books he should have had $2,011.18 in addition to the money he drew in Xenia. His account in the Cedarville bank shows he drew over $400 and only drew the money in his business and rather than face the circumstances, became alarmed and left. He has been in the harness business for ten years and was accounted one of the most conservative business men. J. W. McLean and Thomas Spencer are bondsmen and Sheriff Dadds levied on the stock in behalf of the bondsmen.

Prof. W. W. White who conducted a series of meetings in the U. P. church some time ago, will give his lecture, "I Have Forgotten" in the opera house next Thursday evening, March 21, 1891.

C. D. S. Shavin takes issue with the Herald for our statement as to charges being filed against him and took occasion to abuse the editor for so stating. (A lengthy list of the charges and explanation appeared.) Alex Turnbull went to Urbana this week where he purchased 118 head of registered Delaware sheep, the finest flock in this section of the state.

March 22, 1891.
Miss Ida Wolford won the first prize at the Demorest contest at the city hall in Springfield, Tuesday evening, there being twelve contestants from three different counties. Miss Wolford spoke "The Martyred Mother" and her rendition of it could not well be improved upon.

The books for the library have arrived and have been placed in the "X" rooms for the present. The library will be opened on Wednesday afternoon and all who have paid one dollar will be entitled to a twelve month's ticket.

The Shakespeare club entertained last evening at the home of Mr. J. C. Barber and sister, about forty being present. A good program consisting of vocal and instrumental music, readings and recitations were rendered. A poem written by Miss Lida Keok to one of the members entitled "The Ohio River" was read at the meeting.

Capt. Whiteman Reveals Letter.

Governor Harman's political aspirations, evidently received a severe shock when Capt. L. H. Whiteman, former editor of the Xenia Herald, Democratic, made public a letter this week that the Governor had written in 1878 when he advocated "killing" the party. The Governor at that time was secretary of the People's Party, a branch of the Democrats that were against electing William Allen for governor. The letter was given out for the purpose of boosting the Democratic "progressive" movement against the Governor, who is regarded as a stand-patter. Both of the old parties have taken on the progressive lately and factional fights will result in a lively campaign before the next convention.

Entertainers Bible Classes.

Last Friday afternoon Mrs. Frank Hastings entertained the "Dorcas Bible Class," of which she is a member—and the class was taught by Mrs. Marsh at a table set for afternoon luncheon, which was abundant and dainty.

The Dorcas class, led by Mrs. W. H. Barber, is composed of women, who meet every Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The members once a month attend to many instances of need, and have a paper read by Mrs. Barber. "Why should I attend Sunday School?" This was followed by a discussion and the reports of the members. Then followed a song, which was a description of the two classes might have been. A hearty invitation was given to the women of the church who are not members to join one of the classes and enjoy the lessons and sing.

More Girls Than Boys.

Mr. J. W. Johnson, corporation clerk, who is required to keep the record of births and deaths, has issued his yearly statement and we find that the number of girls born was 80 which was eight more than there were boys, there being but 72 at them.

According to race there were 23 white girls and 18 white boys with 7 colored girls and 4 colored boys, making 41 white children and 11 colored.

The following is the record of deaths for the year: White, males 16, females 18. Colored, males 3, females 2. Total 24.

TWO GREAT ATTRACTIONS.

Much interest in this vicinity and surrounding counties is centering in the coming Ohio State Pastors' and Superintendents' Institute to be held in Springfield on January 24th. All pastors and superintendents in this part of the State have been specially invited to be present and participate in the discussions of problems related to these chief officers of the Sunday school.

DR. JOSEPH CLARK, Columbus, O.

The experts announced as the leading speakers are Dr. H. M. Hamill of Nashville, Tenn., who is known throughout the Sunday-school world as one of the greatest Sunday-school authorities of this age. He is a typical Southerner with the silver-tongued eloquence peculiar to the highest type of Southern platform speakers. Dr. Hamill is declared by Justice J. J. MacLaren, the King's Counsel, of Ontario, Canada, to be, in his own judgment, the greatest teacher he has ever heard. Dr. Hamill has been a pastor and knows the problems of both the pastor and the Sunday-school superintendent.

Dr. Joseph Clark (the "Timothy Standby" of the Sunday School World) in his thirtieth year as General Secretary of the Ohio Sunday School Association, was never so popular as at present. Sunday-school leader as he is today. He is recognized among all Sunday-school people as a Sunday-school authority having had years of experience as an expert in every phase of Sunday-school work.

All pastors and superintendents should plan to be present at each session of the Institute. They are open to all persons who wish to attend. A strong program has been prepared.

Injured Employee Sues Pennsy.

Saving Is Like Education

No man could cash his education nor can he reap the entire value of it any one time.

Education goes with a man through his entire lifetime. In everything he does it helps him to earn more and to better enjoy what he earns.

A saving account is much the same. The man who has saved some knows he can save more and other people know he can save. The actual money saved is a constant help to him at every turn. It is a lever helping to remove each and every business obstacle. But the dollars are not all.

Were they lost the ability to save more would still be a big asset.

SPRINGFIELD'S NEW RAILWAY STATION

SPRINGFIELD, where the State Corn Show is to be held Jan. 16-20, rejoices in the finest individual passenger station on the New York Central Lines. It has been open about six months and will be one of the points of interest to which the attention of visitors will be directed. Springfield also has three other new railway and traction stations.

OHIO CORN SHOW WILL BE GREAT EVENT OF YEAR

Farmers of Corn Belt Turn Their Eyes Toward Springfield, the Buckeye State's Busy Mart, For the Big Annual Exhibition.

FARMERS all through Ohio and all over the corn belt are vastly interested in the fourth annual Corn Show to be held under the direction of the Ohio Corn Improvement association, Jan. 16-20, 1912. The State Show was held last year in Columbus in connection with the National Corn Show. Arrangements at the State Fair grounds not having proved satisfactory for a mid-winter exhibition, it was decided to take the show elsewhere, and Springfield was the first city considered by the officers of the association. Overtures were made to the Springfield Commercial club and the suggestion eagerly accepted by that organization. Arrangements were quickly made whereby the tabernacle in which Bill Sunday held his evangelistic meetings a few weeks before was secured for the Corn Show, and with which is to be combined a great industrial exhibit by Springfield manufacturers, in which their line of agricultural implements will be shown along with other manufacture has the support of the entire force of agricultural scientists in the employ of the state, who will contribute greatly to making it a success. These men are most enthusiastic over the prospects for the Springfield show and expect it to be the biggest, not only in the quality and quantity of the exhibits, but in attendance. The experts connected with the Experiment Station emphasize the value of the Corn Show to the farmer and are exceedingly anxious that as many farmers as possible attend this show. They point out that the annual yield of corn is only one-half what it ought to be. The average yield in Ohio is only about 35 bushels to the acre, whereas many farmers by superior education and more intelligent cultivation

One of the Eight Cups That Will Be Awarded at the Ohio Corn Show. are able to produce yields of from 50 to 75, and even 90, bushels per acre. The yield is fast, down by men who do not believe in Corn Shows, Institutes and the like and are themselves the heaviest losers by their prejudice. It is this sort of farmer that the Ohio Improvement association is most desirous of reaching. The State Corn Show with its exhibits of fine corn grain and its opportunity for the interchange of ideas on corn breeding and growing, the expenditure of a little time in attending the Springfield show will pay big dividends to the farmer who is far-sighted enough to see and grasp the opportunity. tured products. The most strenuous and successful efforts have been made by Springfield men to transform the roughly constructed tabernacle into a comfortable, well-heated and well-ventilated meeting place. Arrangements were at once made with a Chicago heating firm and a $1,500 installation has been made, included in the terms of which is a guarantee that the temperature maintained shall be 70 degrees, even if the mercury falls below zero. Board stables have supplanted the earth paths which were used during the Sunday meetings. Conveniences have been added and every possible effort has been made to insure the perfect comfort and convenience of the city's guests during the show.

More than $500 in cash premiums will go to the successful exhibitors of corn during this show. No merchandise will be given as premiums. At the same time eight magnificent trophy cups will be awarded as follows:

Performance Utility Class, best yield for five acres, Ohio Farmer Cup. Grand Champion Sweepstakes for best ten ears in show, National Stockman & Farmer Cup. Report of Corn Variety Test, National Stockman & Farmer Cup. Record of Field of Corn, Farm Management Cup. County Exhibit, Ohio Farmer Cup. High School Contest, College of Agriculture Cup. Boys' Corn Growing Contest, American Agriculturist Cup. Grange Contest, Ohio State Grange Cup. With the growing interest in corn breeding it is expected that this will

It will be easy to reach Springfield for the State Corn Show to be held in that city Jan. 16-20. Springfield is located 45 miles west of Columbus and 80 miles northeast of Cincinnati, on the Big Four, Pennsylvania, Erie, and D. T. & I. railroads. It may also be reached by the following traction lines: The Ohio Electric, three divisions, East, West and North; the Springfield, Troy & Piquette, the Springfield & Xenia, and the Washington Traction company. Splendid terminal facilities have recently been completed in Springfield including new depots for the Pennsylvania, Big Four, and D. T. & I. railroads, and for the Ohio Electric, S. THE REV. IRL L. HICKS
1912 ALMANAC.

Before the great Drouth of 1901, the Hicks Almanac gave timely warning. For over two years prior to 1911, the Hicks Almanac again sounded a warning of drouth danger. And so for forty years this same friend of all the people has steadily refused the offers of speculators and continued to warn the public of the coming dangers of storm and weather. As they should have done, the people have stood nobly by Professor Hicks, their faithful public servant, who has grown old in this service. Send only One Dollar to WORKS PUBLISHING COMPANY, 3401 Fran. Hu Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri, and get his Magazine and Almanac both for one year. The Almanac alone, a fine book of 100 pages, is only 35c by mail. Let everybody respond and receive the warnings of our National Star for the coming year.

Made Him Careful. "I tell you, Edgely," said Mr. Todd as they sat in the park, "the way women dress these days is absurd! And nine times out of ten it is the fault of men. Just for instance, take that woman coming down the path. Some fool husband has told her she looks perfectly charming in that outrageous getup, lacking the stamina to come right out blunty and tell her that she looks positively ridiculous." Since this remark Mr. Todd has never been seen in public without his glasses. The woman was Mrs. Todd.—Judge.

A Job He Could Fill. Papa—But hasn't your fiance got a job? Daughter—Not yet, but he's going to get one at $25,000 a year. Papa—Indeed! Glad to hear it! What is he doing? Daughter—Well, he read in the paper of some man who is paid $50,000 a year by the Bankers' association not to forge checks, and George is going to offer not to do it for half that.—Puck.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and restoring nature in doing its work. The proprietors have much faith in its curative powers, but they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

ANNUAL BARGAIN OFFER.

The Ohio State Journal Will again offer a Twelve Months' Mail Subscription for only Two Dollars—A Splendid Opportunity for Rural Mail Patrons.

During the month of January rural mail patrons, if those residing in towns where The Journal is without an agency, will have an opportunity to secure one year's subscription to The Ohio State Journal (State Edition), at the reduced price of two dollars.

The State Edition of The Ohio State Journal is issued daily except Sunday, and is one of the greatest and best newspapers published. Farmers will be especially interested in this offer, as the State Edition is made up in a manner calculated to interest and please the country people. In fact, it is a special edition for their benefit.

The important telegraph and Columbus news appears in this edition as does the market page, which is the best published. A big majority of the farmers are already readers of The State Journal, which is evidence that it is a favorite among the rural classes.

In keeping with a great newspaper, the Ohio State Journal is publishing the political news regardless of party ties and its readers are kept posted on what is actually happening in the political field.

The Ohio State Journal is the only morning newspaper published in Columbus or Central Ohio and has the great advantage of reaching rural route patrons on day of publication. Every page is interesting, the editorial page being the ablest published in this section of the country. The special offer of two dollars for twelve months' subscription will expire on the last day of January, after which the rate will be three dollars for twelve months' subscription. Orders left at this office will be given prompt attention and forwarded to The State Journal with out delay.

If you want a great daily Associated Press Newspaper at a reduced rate this is your opportunity to secure it.
